

ELFA 2023 INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL "MODERN FEATURES OF HUMAN RIGHTS PROTECTION IN THE COUNTRIES OF THREE SEAS"

The International Summer School "MODERN FEATURES OF HUMAN RIGHTS PROTECTION IN THE COUNTRIES OF THREE SEAS" has been recognized as European Law Faculties Association (ELFA) Summer Course and is jointly presented by the Baltic International Academy (BIA) and the Faculty of Law of the University of Białystok. Experts from five Universities in Latvia, Poland, Bulgaria, Georgia and Ukraine will introduce participants to various aspects of the implementation of human rights in the EU.

The lectures will attempt to present a variety of perspectives on various aspects of human rights protection, both nationally and internationally. The lectures will give participants not only an understanding of contemporary human rights methods and tools, but will also provide insight into the various aspects and problems of human rights implementation.

KEY DATA

Program date: June 26th - June 30th, 2023

Length: 1 Week

ADMISSION

This program is intended for:

- Law students and graduates from other countries
- Professional who possess a law degree
- Professional interested in Human rights or a related subject area

PROGRAM SCOPE - 32 Academic hours

LANGUAGE: English

FORM OF PARTICIPATION: online ZOOM

REGISTRATION FORM:

<https://forms.gle/8ap4iQKGJDKb6DZr7>

APPLICATION DEADLINE: June 16, 2023.

PARTICIPATION FEES:

- Participant, normal fee: FREE
- For participants who wish to receive a Certificate – 20,00 EUR.

PERSON RESPONSIBLE FOR ORGANIZING:

Dr.soc. Vladislav Volkov, Vice-Rector for Science of the BIA

COORDINATOR:

Irina Gaft, BIA Dean of direction "Science of Law"

CONTACTS:

e-mail: ties.zin@bsa.edu.lv

t. (+371) 67100666

ACADEMIC PROGRAMME

MONDAY, JUNE 26

Baltic International Academy (Latvia)

11:00-11:30 - opening

11:40-13:10 Inese Nikulceva, Dr.iur., Lead researcher

Constitutional review in the European Union and in the Baltic States

13:20-14:50 Vladislav Volkov, Dr.soc., As.Professor

Features of human rights and social protection in a multicultural society

TUESDAY, JUNE 27

Białystok University, Faculty of Law (Poland)

10:00-11:30 Elżbieta Kuźelewska, dr.Hab., Professor

Evolution of the European system of human rights protection

11:40-13:10 Dariusz Kuźelewski, Dr.iur.

Selected issues of human rights protection in criminal trial

13:20-14:50 Anna Drabarz, PhD.

Human rights in business

15:00-16:30 Magdalena Perkowska, Dr.iur.

Human rights and refugees' rights

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28

Caucasus School of Governance (Georgia)

10:00-11:30 Levan Meskoradze, Professor

International Human Rights protection system tête-à-tête to international conflicts

11:40-13:10 Levan Meskoradze, Professor

Enforcement of international human rights standards at local levels

13:20-14:50 Tinatin Uplisashvili – Professor

Criminal Subculture and its impact on human rights protection

15:00-16:30 Tinatin Uplisashvili – Professor

Terrorism and Human Rights

THURSDAY, JUNE 29

1.University of National and World Economy, Faculty of Law (Bulgaria)

10:00-11:30 Boyka Cherneva, As.Professor

The Right to Non-Discrimination as a Fundamental Right of Citizens

2.Odessa National Maritime University (Ukraine)

11:40-13:10 and 13:20-14:50 Oleksandr Stovpets, Dr. Hab., Professor

Genesis of different generations of human rights and contemporary challenges in the context of digitalization

3.Baltic International Academy (Latvia)

15:00-16:30 Raimonds Rublovskis, Mg.hist.

Impact of military operations on human rights in the conflict area

FRIDAY, JUNE 30

Baltic International Academy (Latvia)

10:00-11:30 Yaroslav Strelchenoks, Dr.iur.cand., ex-head of Corruption Prevention and Combating Bureau, Expert of Council of Europe

Impact of corruption on human rights

11:40-13:10 Tatyana Jurkevica, Dr.iur., As.Professor

The transformation of European Private International Law

13:10-13:40 - closing