
Session Submission Summary

Advances in Rural Criminology

Wed, Nov 15, 5:00 to 6:20pm, Salon K, 5th Floor

Session Submission Type: Complete Thematic Panel

Abstract/Description

This thematic session includes papers on several important issues pertinent to the study of rural crime.

Sub Unit

Area II. Perspectives on Crime / 5. Routine Activities and Situational Perspectives

Individual Presentations

Fruit Theft and Its Prevention in rural Japan: Findings from a Questionnaire Survey of Farmers - Ai Suzuki, Osaka Metropolitan University

What We Know About Rural Crime in Poland? – First Conclusions of the Research Project - Emilia Jurgielewicz-Delegacz, University of Bialystok (Poland)

Rural Crime and Criminal Justice in China: An Analysis of Key Issues - Qingli Meng, Niagara University

A Routine Activities Approach to Understanding the Crime Experiences of the Amish - Joseph Donnermeyer, The Ohio State University

Chair

Joseph Donnermeyer, The Ohio State University

Organized by a Division or external group?

Division of Rural Criminology

